Projects

PROJECT ON EXPLORATORY DATA ANALYSIS

- This Project was developed on Jupiter Notebook (Anaconda 3)
- Proficient in statistical analysis, data visualization, and data exploration techniques Built with python using Machine Learning. It is a Model which uses Naive Model as base model and predict price using Panda frame work.
- Created and Maintained scalability of analysis documentation for EDA processes, ensuring reproducibility and Visualized data using tools such as matplotlib and Tableau to communicate insights to stakeholder and guide decision-making.
- Conducted extensive exploratory data analysis (EDA) on a large dataset of customer behaviour. Including data cleaning, visualization, and hypothesis testing.
